Dear Sir—We wish to say that we have used your "perfume" in the Pastime and Silver Palace Theaters and have found it to be even better than you represented.

We find that it has all the fragrance of a flower garden and is in no way offensive to the patrons, and heartily recommend it to all theater owners. Yours very truly,

Beatriz Michelena, whose picture appears above and who is being starred by the California Motion Picture Corporation in its feature productions, is one of California's and San Francisco's most celebrated daughters. Her career on the operatic stage has been of marvelous and spectacular success, she having combined with her remarkable histrionic talents a voice of matchless versatility and sweetness. When a mere slip of a girl, sixteen years of age, she won the plaudits of the country as the "Girl" in "The Girl from Dixie," and from that day was recognized as among the country's most luminous light opera stars. Her father is Fernando Michelena, the famous grand opera tenor, whose voice in its day was accounted the greatest in America. Her debut in motion pictures emphatically argues the growing popularity and importance of the screen in the amusement world.
